

Annual Meeting, January 10, 200

Icelandic Club of Greater Seattle

The meeting was called to order by the President, Emily Kristjanson.

Names were presented by Kathi Olason Scott for board members. They are as follows:

President: Margret Solvadottir

Vice President: Henry Bjornsson

Secretary: Kathi Olason Scott

Treasurer: Linda Bjarnason

Membership Chair: Becky Johnson

Nominations from the floor were invited. The above mentioned board members were named as the motion to accept was passed with no objections from the floor.

The club received a $50,000 donation for the Iceland room at the new museum. It was put into a 4 year CD. This gift was graciously given by Alice and Herman Thordarson.

Also for the Iceland room the club has a CD that has been rolling over since 1999 and consists of $3,339.30 as of this point in time. In the scholarship fund the club has $2,736.50. Including this most generous donation by the Thordarsons, our total assets are $67,859.80.

Thorablott was discussed and flyers were passed around done by Henry Bjornsson. He states that there is a new cook coming from Iceland. Tickets will be $65 for members and $70 for non-members. These tickets will be $70 and $80 respectively if purchased at the door. We will have CDs with Icelandic music.

The bylaws of the club were discussed and Jon Marvin Jonsson proposed changes which would go into effect this year. It was stated that board members who resign must have adequate reason presented to the board.

Emily Kristjanson read an inspirational reading entitled "I know something good about you".

Upcoming events were discussed and members given the opportunity to work these events.

The meeting was adjourned and those in attendance stayed for coffee, good food, and good conversations.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathi Olason Scott
